Firm Responsibilities

We will prepare the above-referenced tax returns solely for filing with the Internal Revenue Service and state and local tax authorities as identified above. We will prepare your tax returns based upon information and representations that you provide to us. We will inquire about missing documents when a two-year comparison is completed by our office. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit to us, although we may ask you to clarify certain information. We prepare your return with the assumption that prior year information such as filing status, names, dates of birth, dependents, occupations, and social security numbers are the same unless otherwise communicated by you.

Confidentiality - All returns and supporting tax documents and conversations are held with the utmost confidentiality. We will not share your information with any third party unless otherwise approved and/or requested by you directly. If the tax returns prepared in connection with this engagement are filed using the married filing jointly filing status, both spouses are deemed to be clients of the firm under the terms of this Agreement. Both individuals acknowledge that there is no expectation of privacy from the other concerning our services in connection with this Agreement. We are at liberty to share with either of you, without prior consent of the other, documents and other information concerning the preparation of your tax returns.

Bookkeeping assistance - We may deem it necessary to provide you with accounting and bookkeeping assistance solely for the purpose of preparing the tax returns. We will request your approval in writing before rendering these services as additional charges will apply for such services.

Estimated tax payments - You may be required to make quarterly estimated tax payments. We will calculate these payments for the 2025 tax year based upon the information you provide to prepare your 2024 tax returns (the "safe harbor" basis). There is no obligation to update recommended estimated tax payments after this engagement is completed, however, if you feel that this service may be warranted later in the 2025 filing year, we are happy to assist in this process and additional fees will apply.

Tax planning services - Our engagement does not include tax planning services, however, during the course of preparing the tax returns identified above, we may bring to your attention potential tax savings strategies for you to consider as a possible means of reducing your taxes in subsequent tax years. The responsibility for the execution of these strategies remains with you and may require the consultation of other professionals/advisors outside of our office. Additional fees will apply to our involvement of implementation and are outside the scope of this engagement.

Timing of the Engagement

We expect to begin our services outlined above upon receipt of this executed Agreement and receipt of all information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns.

Extensions of Time to File Tax Returns

The original filing due dates for your tax returns are April 15, 2025 for Federal, State and Local Returns, if applicable. Due to the high volume of tax returns prepared by our firm, the information needed to complete the tax returns must be received no later than March 28, 2025 so that the returns may be completed by the original filing due dates.

Our office files extensions in March to accommodate the filers that have not yet submitted their information and to accommodate our internal workflow so that we can continue to focus on returns closer the actual filing due date. By signing this document, you also approve of this automatic extension for 2024 and 2025 tax years. While we will file the extension automatically for 2025, a separate engagement letter will still be required to communicate and approve of the tax return engagement for that tax year.

Penalties and Interest Charges

Federal, state, and local tax authorities impose various penalties and interest charges for non-compliance with tax laws and regulations including failure to file or late filing of returns, late filing of payment and underpayment of taxes. You, as the taxpayer, remain responsible for the payment of all tax, penalties, and interest charges imposed by tax authorities. Failure to disclose or inadequate disclosure of income or tax positions may result in the imposition of penalties and interest charges.

Professional Fees

The invoice for the tax services is based upon the complexity of the work to be performed, time, and out-of-pocket expenses. This fee is dependent upon the timely delivery, availability, quality, and completeness of the information you provide to us. Invoices are expected to be paid upon receipt. You agree to pay all fees and expenses incurred whether or not we prepare the tax returns.

Please note, if a past due balance exists with our office for prior services, tax preparations will not begin for the current year until the balance is resolved in full or a payment agreement has been put in place.
